

Side view

Back view

Minton & Co. Encaustic Tile

ca 1844-1847

ceramic

American

Encaustic 3" x 6" (nominal) tile in buff, blue and brown stamped "Minton & Co. Stoke-Upon-Trent Patent 08" (1808).

Salvaged from St. Ann's Church, Brooklyn, New York.
Built ca 1844-1847.

Minton was considered the most famous and prolific manufacturer of tile for much of the Victorian era. Patented tile produced by this award-winning tile maker, based in Staffordshire, England, won numerous gold medals at international exhibitions and were considered the best of their day. Tile manufactured by Minton & Co., a trading name of Minton, Hollins & Co., were used in the Houses of Parliament, the Victoria and Albert Museum, the U.S. Capitol and many other prestigious buildings.

Excellent condition.

3" x 6" x 7/8"

Approximately 200 pieces.

Item# UA0375 SV

$85 each

For more information call 212 431 4646 or 212 371 4646