

Art Deco Copper Railing [Angled Section]

Ruhlmann/Brandt

ca 1925

copper-clad

Paris, France

This decorative Art Deco railing section came from the world-renowned Bon Marché department store in the heart of Paris. The design epitomizes the very essence of Art Deco. These rail sections truly exude a sense of unparalleled beauty created by the fusion of great design and supreme craftsmanship. Edgar Brandt was considered one of the most skilled ironworkers in modern history. Designed by Émile-Jacques Ruhlmann and created by Edgar Brandt.

Literature: Les Grands Magasins

Author: Bernard Marrey

Publisher: Picard, 1979, pp 200

Dimensions may vary slightly from piece to piece

Approx. height of post: 23"h

Approx. width of section: 29"w

Approx. angle of rise: 21°

16 pieces available

Item# UA0246 SV

$4,500 each

For more information call 212 431 4646

Bon Marché Department Store
Paris, France
1925