

Art Deco Entrance Doors and Side Panels

Louis Katona

ca 1925

wrought iron, steel and frosted glass

French

These exquisite French art deco doors and side panels were designed by Louis Katona. The hand wrought iron doors feature bursts of curling plumes with four elegant birds in flight. Impressed "L. Katona" and "France". Included are four glazed storm liners. It is all original and in excellent condition minus a handle.

The doors became the entrance doors to a residential building in Manhattan. A similar entryway was sold at Sotheby's in 2000.
