

Bank Vault Gate

ca 1930
wrought iron American

Salvaged from a bank in Pennsylvania, this wrought and cast iron gate once served as secure entryway into a bank's main vault area. The non-conductive wooden handle of the door served as protection from electrical shock to those who were buzzed into the secure area. This Art Deco American-made gate is ready for installation and on display in our Franklin Street showroom.

8'-6" h x 6'-6" w

Item# UA0029 SV
$27,500

For more information call 212 431 4646

